

INTERNATIONAL TRADE COMMISSION

[Investigation No. 337-TA-1235]

Certain Vehicle Control Systems, Vehicles Containing the Same, and Components Thereof

Institution of Investigation

AGENCY: U.S. International Trade Commission.

ACTION: Notice.

Summary: Notice is hereby given that a complaint was filed with the U.S. International Trade Commission on November 19, 2020, under section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, on behalf of Jaguar Land Rover Limited of the United Kingdom and Jaguar Land Rover North America, LLC of Mahwah, New Jersey. A supplement was filed on December 10, 2020. The complaint, as supplemented, alleges violations of section 337 based upon the importation into the United States, the sale for importation, and the sale within the United States after importation of certain vehicle control systems, vehicles containing the same, and components thereof by reason of infringement of certain claims of U.S. Patent No. RE46,828 (“the ‘828 patent”). The complaint further alleges that an industry in the United States exists as required by the applicable Federal Statute. The complainants request that the Commission institute an investigation and, after the investigation, issue a limited exclusion order and cease and desist orders.

ADDRESSES: The complaint, except for any confidential information contained therein, may be viewed on the Commission’s electronic docket (EDIS) at <https://edis.usitc.gov>. SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

AUTHORITY: The authority for institution of this investigation is contained in section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, 19 U.S.C. 1337, and in section 210.10 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, 19 C.F.R. 210.10 (2020).

Scope of Investigation: Having considered the complaint, the U.S. International Trade Commission, on December 21, 2020, ORDERED THAT –

(1) Pursuant to subsection (b) of section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, an investigation be instituted to determine whether there is a violation of subsection (a)(1)(B) of section 337 in the importation into the United States, the sale for importation, or the sale within the United States after importation of certain products identified in paragraph (2) by reason of infringement of one or more of claims 21, 25-37, 39, and 41-47 of the '828 patent; and whether an industry in the United States exists as required by subsection (a)(2) of section 337;

(2) Pursuant to section 210.10(b)(1) of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, 19 C.F.R. 210.10(b)(1), the plain language description of the accused products or category of accused products, which defines the scope of the investigation, is “automobile driving-mode control systems, components thereof, and automobiles containing those automobile driving-mode systems”;

(3) Notwithstanding any Commission Rules to the contrary, which are hereby waived, the respondents shall, and complainants may, present evidence and arguments concerning the ease or difficulty (in terms of, e.g., time, cost and technological requirements), of removing, replacing, or altering the accused automobile driving-mode control systems, and the presiding administrative law judge shall, as part of any recommended determination issued pursuant to Commission Rule 210.42(a)(1)(ii), make findings and issue a recommendation concerning the impact of this issue on any remedy or concerning the potential tailoring of any remedy based on this issue;

(4) For the purpose of the investigation so instituted, the following are hereby named as parties upon which this notice of investigation shall be served:

Responses to the complaint and the notice of investigation must be submitted by the named respondents in accordance with section 210.13 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, 19 C.F.R. 210.13. Pursuant to 19 C.F.R. 201.16(e) and 210.13(a), as amended in 85 Fed. Reg. 15798 (March 19, 2020), such responses will be considered by the Commission if received not later than 20 days after the date of service by the complainants of the complaint and the notice of investigation. Extensions of time for submitting responses to the complaint and the notice of investigation will not be granted unless good cause therefor is shown.

Failure of a respondent to file a timely response to each allegation in the complaint and in this notice may be deemed to constitute a waiver of the right to appear and contest the allegations of the complaint and this notice, and to authorize the administrative law judge and the Commission, without further notice to the respondent, to find the facts to be as alleged in the complaint and this notice and to enter an initial determination and a final determination containing such findings, and may result in the issuance of an exclusion order or a cease and desist order or both directed against the respondent.

By order of the Commission.

Issued: December 21, 2020.

Lisa Barton,
Secretary to the Commission.
